NIGHT RIDER CONFESSES.
The State practically completed its case in Union City, Tenn., yesterday, against the eight alleged night riders on trial for the murder of Capt. Rankin, when it drew from Frank Fehrerger, a member of the band, a detailed statement of the Rankin affair and a score or more of other outrages. It also called to the stand Mrs. Emma Thorman Johnson, one of the two women said to have been whipped by the band and had her tell her story.

The startling testimony of Frank Fehrerger, who confessed, accusing them on trial of being actual participants in the murder of Capt. Rankin, given with an exactness of detail, amazed the people who thronged the courtroom.
Then, as Mrs. Johnson's name was called, a murmur of satisfaction arose.
She walked rapidly to the stand, and removed her veil reluctantly on the judge's instructions that she might be heard by the jury.

Mrs. Johnson had married Joe Johnson, a man 30 years older than she, and lived with him four years, when a child was born. Last August she sued him for divorce, charging cruelty and asking maintenance. Early in September the riders visited her father's home and left word that she must withdraw the suit. She failed to do so, and on a second visit her father was whipped.

On both occasions when she was whipped she was at her sister's home and one occasion in bed.
Fehrerger said members of the gang subscribed to the following oaths:
"You do solemnly swear, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, that you will not write, talk or tell to any one of the secrets of this order of Night Riders; that, if you do talk, write or tell to any person any of the secrets of the order, we are permitted to do with you as we see fit. You know death, hell, and destruction will be your portion, and that your body will not be buried in a graveyard. Do you willingly and freely submit to all this, no help you God?"

MRS. ANNIS ON THE STAND Mrs. Helene E. Annis, widow of William E. Annis the victim in the Bayside N. Y. tragedy, took the stand yesterday afternoon in the old town hall at Flushing, where T. Jenkins Hains is on trial charged with an equal share in the killing of William E. Annis. The testimony of the widow was without doubt the strongest feature of the prosecution so far, and yesterday was the most discouraging day the prisoner has seen since the trial began a week ago. With the pronouncement of the name, "Helene E.
Annis," by the district attorney, the first counsel of the trial was forestalled.

The testimony of Mrs. Annis was entirely unimpaired by the cross-questioning of Lawyer John E. McIntyre. It contained several points damaging to the defendant. The widow swore that when her husband's boat came in and Capt.
Peter Hains began firing, Thornton pointed a revolver at her and told her not to move, or "she would get the same." She said that as she turned at the sight of the revolver, she felt the weapon a ner back. Before the shooting, she said, while her husband's boat was on its way to the float, and the Haines stood on the deck above, talking with various club members, Thornton Hains reckoned his brother, the captain, and led the way down to the float.

Lawyer McIntyre, upon whom the brunt of the defense falls, treated Mrs.
Annis with great consideration and gentleness, but nevertheless he tried to break down the points in her testimony, and in none of the three points, as in none of the rest of the story, was he successful.

COUNCILMEN ARRESTED.
Seven members of the finance committee of the Pittsburg, Pa., council were arrested last night at the instance of the Voters' League, a civic reform organization. They are charged with conspiracy, corrupt practices, and bribery, in connection with municipal legislation during the past two years.

The men who are primarily responsible for their arrest are all attorneys who are tax-payers of the Civic League, and include Mayor George W. Guthrie.
Sydney A. Ait was caused by the arrest that the board of directors of several banks were called into extra sessions last night to cover up the banks who are to be charged with bribing the finance committee for the purpose of having their banks selected as depositories.
This is one of the charges which will create the greatest stir because the task in each case will undoubtedly be dragged into the trials.

Alleged acts in connection with the establishment of depositories for the funds of the city are enumerated in the complaints against the councilmen, and it is said several persons occupying official positions in Pittsburg banks will soon be arrested.
